

About the Allentown Music Club

The Allentown Music Club is a non-profit organization that supports quality music education. The club started in 1906 in Estelle Wright's living room as an outlet for performers, music study and a haven for music lovers. It took until 1915 to become affiliated with the Pennsylvania Federation of Music Clubs. This gave us affiliation with the largest philanthropic musical organization in the world founded in 1898 called the National Federation of Music Clubs (NFMC).

During the 1930's, membership increased and the Woman's Club, now known as the Barrister's Club, became our home. In the 1950's, a Junior Music Club (ages 13-18), now known as the Young Musicians Club (ages 6-18), began performing for the sponsoring Senior Club and also at local churches and nursing homes. 1951 marked the year men finally were admitted to the club as members and artist performers. We now meet monthly on Sunday afternoons from October to May (no January or February) starting at 3:00 P.M. at the Hope United Church of Christ located on 1031 Flexer Avenue, Allentown, PA 18103.

Our monthly recital programs feature our Artist Members and occasionally a member of our Young Musicians Club and at the end of the season our scholarship winners.

Our projects include four scholarships: Outstanding String Performer in the Lehigh County Schools; Summer Music Camp for a qualified member of the Young Musicians Club; Martha Marcks Mack Scholarship for Young Vocal Artists and Past Presidents Assembly Scholarship to a qualified student in the area who continues their education in Musical Performance. We also help host the PFMC Festival for the Philadelphia Region (Central). Come join us as either a Member or Artist Member. Persons interested in auditioning for Artist Membership need to contact Auditions Chairperson, Santa J. Peters at 610-797-2582. Members need only possess a desire to be a music lover who wants to join our cause to support quality music education.

Martha Marcks Mack Scholarship for Young Vocal Artists

Kendra Domotor attends Ithaca College (IC) as a sophomore Vocal Performance and Music Education double major. Her academic accomplishments include induction into the Ithaca College Oracle Society in 2012 and the Pi Kappa Lambda Certificate of Honor in 2012-13. A Presidential Scholar at IC, she currently maintains a 3.9 GPA.

Kendra involves herself heavily in the Ithaca community. Her memberships include Sigma Alpha Iota and the Ithaca College chapter of the American Choral Directors Association. In the summer of 2012, she represented the Music School while working as an Orientation Leader for the First Year Experience. She volunteers as an IC Move-In Crew member, Fall Welcome Ambassador, and Music School Audition Day Student Representative.

Vocally, Kendra studies privately with mezzo-soprano Dawn Pierce. While at Ithaca, she performed the role of Cathleen in the Ithaca College Light Opera's production of Ralph Vaughan Williams' Riders to the Sea, and will be performing in their World Premiere of IC Composition Major Joseph Kaz's opera Song of Solomon. She currently sings with the Women's Chorale under the instruction of acclaimed choral conductor Dr. Janet Galván. In 2011, she won the Allentown Music Club's Past Presidents' Award. Recently she placed third in the Sophomore Women division of the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) Eastern Regional Competition. This summer, Kendra will be studying opera with the International Performing Arts Institute in Kiefersfelden, Germany.
